

June 16, 2025 – Keiser AR

A scheduled city council meeting in Keiser, AR was cancelled Monday evening after an insufficient number of council members appeared, preventing the council from reaching a quorum and conducting official business.

According to Mayor Rick Creecy, only one (Lynn Skaggs) of the four-member council were present at the meeting, falling short of the required number needed to legally convene and vote on agenda items. Absent were Donna Bell, Laura Smith, and Joey Jackson.

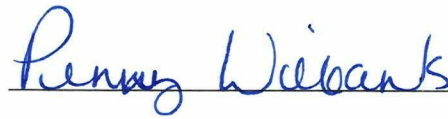

Recorder Penny Wilbanks confirmed that the meeting was officially called off after a 15-minute delay.

The next regular city council meeting is scheduled for Monday, July 21, 2025.
